The Event

Just over forty years ago, two human beings accomplished what many deemed impossible: they stepped onto the surface of the moon! But something else occurred on that day just before Buzz Aldrin and Neil Armstrong exited the Lunar Module that did not make the newscasts at that time. It was an event that Aldrin wrote about in Guideposts magazine some months after his return.

In October 2005, writer Eric Metaxas had the privilege of meeting Aldrin and asked him about the event. Aldrin confirmed the story and Metaxas wrote about it.

Aldrin and Armstrong had only been on the lunar surface for a few minutes when Aldrin made the following public statement: “This is the LM pilot. I’d like to take this opportunity to ask every person listening in, whoever and wherever they may be, to pause for a moment and contemplate the events of the past few hours and to give thanks in his or her own way.” He then ended radio communication and there, on the silent surface of the moon, 250,000 miles from home, he read a verse from the Gospel of John, and he took communion. Here is his account of what happened:

“In the radio blackout, I opened the little plastic packages which contained the bread and the wine. I poured the wine into the chalice our church had given me. In the one-sixth gravity of the moon, the wine slowly curled and gracefully came up the side of the cup. Then I read the Scripture, ‘I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoso-

Welcome!

We're glad to have you worship with us today. Please feel at home here, and come back soon. These are some things you will observe in our worship today:

Congregational singing — A cappella, or singing without instruments.

Communion Service — Members of the Lord's church meet at His table to remember Him. We do not have closed communion, so if you choose to partake, please feel free to do so. Round bread is gluten free.

Contribution (Offering) — Members give as God has prospered them.

Elder's prayer — A time of prayer of thanksgiving & requests for special needs.

Lesson, or Sermon

Invitation — This is an opportunity for anyone to respond who desires to:

- ✧ Become one of God's children by being baptized (immersed in water);
- ✧ Make known any special need;
- ✧ Identify to be a part of this body.

Earphones are available for anyone who desires amplified audio.

A nursery is available at the rear of the auditorium for care of small children during worship service.

Restrooms are available in the classroom annex, and in the kitchen building.

ever abides in Me will bring forth much fruit. . . For apart from Me, you can do nothing' [John 15:1, 5].”

After he ate the bread and drank the wine, Aldrin reported, “I gave thanks for the intelligence and spirit that had brought two young pilots to the Sea of Tranquility. It was interesting for me to think: the very first liquid ever poured on the moon, and the very first food eaten there, were the communion elements.”

Before man first walked on the MOON, he first remembered what Christ had done for him on the CROSS by taking communion!

The Scriptures teach that the early Christians partook of communion — the Lord's Supper — on the first day of every week (Acts 20:7; I Cor 11:23-29). This Supper was instituted by Jesus as a memorial to what He would do for mankind on the cross (Matt 26:26-29): He died for the sins of the world (I John 2:2).
